Pine Hills Country Club

Junior Membership Application

Our Junior Membership is designed for individuals under the age of 25 and includes full access to the golf course, swimming pool, pickleball courts, 19th Hole, and card room. This membership automatically converts to a Full Membership upon turning 25. The annual maintenance fee is $60, billed each January, and a $25 trail fee applies for member-owned carts, with a trail sticker issued upon payment. New members joining after the first of the month will be charged a prorated membership and maintenance fee for the remainder of that month.

Resignation of membership must be submitted in writing. Please see page 2.

A member resigning in good standing may rejoin under the following plan:

1. A $300 fee will be assessed if rejoining within a year from the date of resignation.
2. After one year from the resignation date, a former member can rejoin if they complete a new application form and agree to pay monthly dues for the 12-month cycle.
3. Members who resign in good standing will be eligible to play regular golf, pickleball, and tournaments by paying green fees, course fees, and entry fees.

If a member resigns and has unpaid dues, the following will apply:

1. A Resigning member may not play regular golf, tournament golf, or pickleball until all back dues are PAID IN FULL.
2. Should a resigning member with back dues owed to the club wish to rejoin, the following will apply:
    a. Complete an application form and agree to pay monthly dues on a timely basis and,
    b. Pay a $300.00 re-entry fee, plus prior unpaid dues, or appeal to the joint management committee.

THIS IS A 12-MONTH CONTRACT.
